Title	Juvenile Law: Findings and Orders After Hearing Forms and Related Attachments for Dependency Court Proceedings (approve Judicial Council forms JV-185, JV-400, JV-401, JV-402, JV-405, JV-406, JV-410, JV-412, JV-415, JV-416, JV-417, JV-418, JV-419, JV-420, JV-421, JV-425, JV-426, JV-430, JV-431, JV-432, JV-433, JV-435, JV-436, JV-437, JV-438, JV-440, JV-441, JV-442, JV-445, JV-446, and JV-448)
Summary	The proposed forms encourage consistency in the findings and orders made in dependency proceedings and in the documentation of those findings and orders. All required findings and orders for the potential outcomes in each hearing type are included on the proposed forms. They are designed for ease of use by court staff, child and family services agencies, and attorneys.

Discussion	Numerous complex issues are addressed during the course of a dependency proceeding, such as the child's status as a dependent, the child's placement, the provision of family maintenance services or family reunification services, and the termination of parental rights. Extensive findings and orders must be made at each type of dependency hearing, and the specific findings and orders required at a given hearing type vary depending on the circumstances of the individual case. The forms are proposed in response to requests for standardized findings and orders for the hearings regularly held in dependency court proceedings. The Administrative Office of the Courts' Center for Families, Children &amp; the Courts received the requests from various participants in the dependency court system, including judges, court clerks, child and family services agency workers, and attorneys. Judicial inefficiency may occur when the findings and orders recommended to the court or the forms used to document the court's findings and orders are inaccurate or do not include all the findings and orders required by state or federal law. In addition, when a case is transferred from one county to another, confusion and inefficiency may occur because of the wide variation in the documentation used in

Invitation to Comment (SPR05-33)

California's 58 counties for findings and orders.

Each form is designed specifically for the hearing type. Depending on the complexity of the findings and orders, it may be either a single form or a cover sheet with attachments. The committee believes that this approach will offer ease of use by court staff, child and family services agencies, and attorneys.

Initial (Detention) Hearing

A single form is used for the initial (detention) hearing and lists the limited outcomes that may occur. The proposed form JV-410, Findings and Orders After Initial (Detention) Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 319), includes the findings and orders required for either one of the two potential outcomes: the temporary removal of the child from the home or the child's retention in the care of the parent, legal guardian, or Indian custodian.

Jurisdictional Hearing

A single form is also used for the jurisdictional hearing because of its limited outcomes and the less complex nature of the required findings and orders. The proposed form JV-412, Findings and Orders After Jurisdictional Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 356), includes the potential findings and orders required at this hearing.

Dispositional Hearing

A cover form with attachments is used for the dispositional hearing. This hearing type results in various outcomes and requires more numerous and complex findings and orders.

There are five typical outcomes at a dispositional hearing: (1) in home placement of the child and dismissal of petition with or without informal supervision of the family by the child and family services agency; (2) in home placement of the child with formal supervision of the family by the court and the child and family services agency; (3) appointment of guardian with or without dismissal of the petition; (4) removal of the child from the home of the custodial parent and placement with the previously noncustodial parent; and (5) removal of the child from the home of the custodial parent and placement with a nonparent.

There are also various possibilities within each outcome. For example, when the court removes the child from the home of the custodial parent and places him or her with the previously noncustodial parent, the court may (1) enter a judgment granting the previously noncustodial parent full custody of the child and dismissing the petition; (2) order family maintenance services for the previously noncustodial parent and no services for the parent from whom child was removed; (3) order no family maintenance services for the previously noncustodial parent and family reunification services for the parent from whom the child was removed; or (4) order family maintenance services for the previously noncustodial parent and family reunification services for the parent from whom child was removed.

The proposed cover form with attachments addresses this complexity. The proposed form JV-415, Findings and Orders After Dispositional Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 361), the findings and orders common to all potential outcomes. The separate attachments for each potential outcome provide the flexibility needed to address the various possibilities within each outcome. The dispositional hearing attachments are:

JV-416, Dispositional Attachment: In-Home Placement—Dismissal of Petition (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 360(b))

JV-417, Dispositional Attachment: In-Home Placement With Formal Supervision (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 361)

JV-418, Dispositional Attachment: Appointment of Guardian (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 360(a))

JV-421, Dispositional Attachment: Removal From Custodial Parent—Placement With Nonparent (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 362.1)

Also included with this set of forms is JV-419, Guardianship—Juvenile, Consent and Waiver of Rights. This proposed form documents the consents and waivers required in a case in which the dispositional hearing outcome is the appointment of a guardian for the child.

In-Home Status Review Hearing

Two forms are proposed for this hearing type. The proposed JV-425, Findings and Orders After In-home Status Review Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 364), is for use in situations in which the child is placed in the home of a parent, a legal guardian, or an Indian custodian under the formal supervision of the court and child and family services agency.

The proposed JV-426, Findings and Orders After In-home Status Review Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, §§ 364, 366.21), is for use at a status review hearing after the child was ordered placed with the previously noncustodial parent at the dispositional hearing, a situation that requires a different set of findings and orders.

Six Month Prepermanency Hearing and Permanency Hearings

A cover form with attachments provides the flexibility necessary for the findings and orders required at the hearings that follow a child's removal from the home: the 6-month prepermanency hearing, the 12-month permanency hearing, and the 18-month permanency hearing.

As outlined below, there is a separate general cover form for each of these hearing types and separate attachments for each potential outcome within each hearing type:

Six Month Prepermanency Hearing

JV-430, Findings and Orders After 6-month Prepermanency Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(e))

JV-431, Six-Month Prepermanency Attachment: Child Reunified (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(e))

JV-432, Six-Month Prepermanency Attachment: Reunification Services Continued (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(e))

JV-433, Six-Month Prepermanency Attachment: Reunification Services Terminated (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(e))

Twelve Month Permanency Hearing

JV-435, Findings and Orders After 12-month Permanency Hearing (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(f))

JV-436, Twelve-Month Prepermanency Attachment: Child Reunified (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(f))

JV-437, Twelve-Month Prepermanency Attachment: Reunification Services Continued (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(f))

JV-438, Twelve-Month Prepermanency Attachment: Reunification Services Terminated (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.21(f))

Eighteen Month Permanency Hearing

JV-440, Findings and Orders After 18-month Permanency Hearing

Invitation to Comment (SPR05-33)

(Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.22)

JV-441, Eighteen-Month Permanency Attachment: Child Reunified

(Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.22)

JV-442, Eighteen-Month Permanency Attachment: Reunification

Services Terminated (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.22)

Postpermanency Hearing

The postpermanency hearing requires two separate forms because of the distinctive nature of the findings and orders required after the selection of adoption as a permanent plan and the termination of parental rights. The proposed JV-445, Findings and Orders After Postpermanency Hearing, Parental Rights Terminated, Permanent Plan of Adoption (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.3), is for use under those circumstances.

The proposed JV- 446, Findings and Orders After Postpermanency Hearing, Permanent Plan Other Than Adoption (Welf. & Inst. Code, § 366.3), is for use in all other postpermanency situations.

Visitation

Three of the proposed forms are visitation attachments. There are separate forms for the findings and orders related to visitation with the child by a parent, a legal guardian, an Indian custodian, or other important person (JV-400); by a sibling (JV-401); and by a grandparent (JV-402). Separate forms are proposed because the required findings and orders vary depending upon the person's relationship to the child.

Continuance

A continuance form for use at the initial (detention) hearing (JV-405) and continuance form for use at all other hearings (JV-406) are proposed. The findings and orders required at the continuance of an initial (detention) hearing are significantly different from those required at all other hearings.

Child's Information Sheet

JV-185, Child's Information Sheet, Motion for Modification of Court Order, is proposed as a practical approach to implementing Welfare and Institutions Code section 353.1, which requires the court, at the hearing at which the child is adjudged a dependent, to inform the child both orally and in writing of the child's rights to request modification of the court's orders and the procedure for making that request.

Authority to Consent to Medical, Surgical, and Dental Care

JV-448, Order Granting Authority to Consent to Medical, Surgical, and Dental Care, is proposed as a practical approach to implementing Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.27, which allows the court, at a permanency hearing, to grant to a relative caretaker the authority to consent to the child's medical, surgical, and dental care.

The proposed forms are attached at pages 7–83.

CHILD'S INFORMATION SHEET:
MOTION FOR MODIFICATION OF COURT ORDER
(Welf. & Inst. Code, §§ 353.1, 388)

TO THE CHILD 12 YEARS OF AGE OR OLDER: This information sheet tells you about your right to ask the judge to change a decision the judge has made about your life. It also explains to you the rules you have to follow when you want to ask the judge to change a decision. This information must be mailed to you after a dispositional hearing. If you are in the court room at the dispositional hearing the judge must also talk with you about this information.

I have just made a decision about your life. You have a right to ask me to change that decision. You have an attorney who will help you with this. For me to change my decision, you must talk with your attorney and have your attorney ask me to change my decision.

1. You must tell your attorney the following information about the decision I made:
  - a. What is different in your life since I made the decision? If nothing is different, what new information do you want to tell me?
  - b. What changes to my decision do you want me to make?
  - c. If I make the changes you want, will you be better off than if I do not make these changes? Tell me how the changes will make you healthier, safer, and happier.
2. After you speak with your attorney, your attorney will fill out a form. The form will tell me what is different in your life and why the changes you want me to make will make things better for you.
  - a. I will read the form.
  - b. I may ask the other people involved with your case if they think you have given me the kind of information I must have in order to change my decision. Then I will decide if you have told me anything new and if the change you want me to make is good for you.
  - c. If I believe you have not told me anything new or if I believe what you want me to change is not good for you, I will not make any changes. The court clerk will send a written notice of my decision not to make any changes to you and all the people involved with your case.
  - d. If I believe you did tell me something new and what you are asking me to change may be better for you, I will schedule a court date for you. The court clerk will send a written notice of my decision to schedule a hearing and the date of the hearing to you and all the people involved with your case.
  - e. At that court date, everyone involved in your case will be present and allowed to speak.
  - f. After everyone has spoken, I will make the final decision. I will make the changes you want only if I believe you have told me something new and what you are asking for is good for you.

You must follow these rules. If you don't follow these rules, I won't know the new information you have what changes you want me to make.
